2. Functions, duties and responsibilities of the Compliance Officer

The Compliance Officer, subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors shall be responsible for –

- (1) Setting forth policies, procedures, monitoring adherence to the Code and Regulations for the preservation of unpublished price sensitive information, approval of trading plan, pre-clearance of trades and monitoring of trades and implementation of this Code.
- (2) Maintaining the record of the Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel, Designated Persons and other connected persons and incorporate changes from time to time.
- (3) Assisting all employees in addressing any clarifications in the Regulations or this Code.
- (4) Advising all Designated Persons not to trade in securities of the Company when the Trading Window is closed.
- (5) Advising all Directors, Promoters, Key managerial personnel and Designated Persons to furnish the details of transactions in the securities of the Company as stated in clauses 7-9 in the prescribed form and to maintain a record of all the intimations received for a period of at least five years.
- (6) Obtaining disclosures from Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel, Designated Persons and other connected persons and to give information, in respect of the disclosures received, to all the Stock Exchanges where the securities are listed, as applicable.
- (7) Maintaining records of all disclosures as stated in clauses 7-10 of this Code and to report the same to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, on annual basis.

3. Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information

- (1) All information is to be handled on a "need to know" basis. It should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty.
- (2) No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a Company or securities, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- (3) No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

- (4) Notwithstanding anything contained above, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:–
- (i) Entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company;
 - (ii) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.
- (5) For purposes of sub-clause (4) above, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of sub-clause (4) above, and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

4. Restriction on trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information

- (1) Save as provided in this Code and the Regulations, no insider shall trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.
- (2) Insiders shall maintain the confidentiality of all unpublished price sensitive information. They shall, while in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information, neither trade in the securities of the Company on the basis of unpublished price sensitive information nor pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for trading in securities of the Company. Also, the Connected Persons shall not trade in company's securities when the trading window is closed.

Prevention of misuse of unpublished price sensitive information:

5. Trading Plans

- (1) An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
- (2) Such trading plan shall:–
 - i. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;

- ii. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - iii. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
 - iv. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - v. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - vi. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
- (3) The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek express undertakings that:
- (i) the person is not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information; or
 - (ii) he would ensure that any unpublished price sensitive information in his possession becomes generally available before he commences his trades; or such other undertaking as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan. The Compliance Officer may thereafter approve the plan.
- (4) The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.
- Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the compliance officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.
- (5) Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

6. Trading Window and Window Closure

The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called "trading window", is available for trading in the Company's securities. The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

All Connected Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

Company shall announce closure of trading window from time to time, as determined by the Compliance Officer for the period from which the connected persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information referred to in 1.21 above made public. The trading window shall be opened 48 hours after the information becomes generally public.

Indicative example:

Suppose the meeting of Board/ Audit Committee for declaration of Financial Results is scheduled on 28th May, then Company will close the trading window from 21st May (7 days prior to the Board Meeting) to 31st May (i.e. 48 hours from end of the Board Meeting) and any connected person cannot trade (buy or sell) the shares/securities of the Company during this period. He/ She can trade only from 1st June.

7 Pre-clearance of Trades

- (1) When the trading window is open, trading by Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall be subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer, if the value of the proposed trades is above threshold limit. No Designated Person/ their immediate relatives shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if they are in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed.
- (2) Designated Persons/ their immediate relatives intending to deal in the securities of the Company upto the threshold limit, as defined and provided hereinbefore, may do so without any pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer. In all other cases, they should pre-clear the transactions as per the pre-dealing procedure as provided hereinafter.
- (3) Designated Persons / their immediate relatives shall make an application in the prescribed Form E, to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that he/ she intends to deal in, the details as to the depository (ies) with which he/she maintains a Demat/ Trading account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by the Compliance Officer in this matter.
- (4) He/ She shall execute an undertaking in favour of the Company, incorporating, therein, inter alia, the following clauses:
 - (i) that he/she does not have any access or has not received Unpublished Price Sensitive Information upto the time of signing the undertaking;
 - (ii) that in case he/ she has access to or receives unpublished price sensitive information after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his/ her position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes generally available;
 - (iii) that he/she has not contravened any provisions of this Code and the Regulations;
 - (iv) that he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the said matter.

- (5) The Compliance Officer shall confidentially maintain a list of such securities as a “restricted list” which shall be used as the basis for approving or rejecting applications for preclearance of trades.
- (6) Designated Persons/ their immediate relatives shall execute their transactions in respect of securities of the Company within seven (7) trading days after the approval of pre-clearance is given failing which the transaction has to be pre-cleared again. Reporting of trades executed or decisions not to trade and recording of such reasons shall be made/done in Form F.

Reporting Requirements

8 Initial Disclosures

- (1) Every promoter, key managerial personnel and director of the Company shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of this Code taking effect, to the Company within thirty days of this Code taking effect in Form A;
- (2) Every person on appointment as a Director or a Key Managerial Personnel of the Company or upon becoming a Promoter shall disclose his/her holding of securities of the Company as on the date of appointment or becoming a Promoter, to the Company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter in Form B.

9 Continual Disclosures

- (1) The Promoters, Directors, Employees of the Company shall disclose to the Company in Form C unless any other Form is specified by the Board, stating the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction, if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, exceeds the threshold limits as defined herein above;
- (2) The Company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, as applicable, within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.
- (3) The disclosure of the incremental transactions after any disclosure shall be made by persons as specified in (1) above, when the transactions effected after the prior disclosure crosses the threshold specified in this clause.

Note:

Disclosures made under Clause 8 and 9 above shall include those relating to trading by such person’s immediate relatives and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.

10. Annual Disclosures

Designated Persons shall furnish to the Compliance Officer an Annual statement of all their holdings in securities of the Company to be submitted within 30 days of the close of each Financial Year in Form D annexed hereto.

11. Preservation of disclosures

The disclosures made under these regulations shall be maintained by the Compliance Officer, for a minimum period of five years.

12. Penalty for non-compliance of this Code

- (1) Any Promoter, Director, Employee or other connected person, who trades in securities or communicates any information for trading in securities in contravention of this Code, shall be penalized and appropriate action shall be taken against them by the Company after giving reasonable opportunity to them to show-cause. He/ she shall also be subject to disciplinary action, as deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors which may include wage freeze, suspension, in-eligibility for future participation in ESOPs etc.
- (2) In addition to the action which may be taken by the Company, the persons violating the Regulations or this Code shall also be subject to action under SEBI Act. In case of any violation, the Board of Directors shall inform the Board accordingly.

Code of Practices and procedures for Fair Disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information:
